TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT [Event location suppressed]

APPLICANT: [The applicant/s]

Tenant

RESPONDENT: Hebcohg Limited Nevin Moodly

Landlord

TENANCY ADDRESS: Room 308, 2 Kerrs Road, Wiri, Auckland 2104, Kerrs Village Inn

ORDER

1. The Tribunal orders suppression of the tenant name and identifying details.
2. Hebcohg Limited Nevin Moodly must pay [The tenant/s] $1,027.00 immediately, calculated as shown in table below:

Description	Tenant
Rent – Overpaid	$1,000.00
Filing fee reimbursement	$27.00
Total award	$1,027.00
Total payable by Landlord to Tenant	$1,027.00

Reasons:

1. Both parties attended the hearing.
2. This was a boarding house tenancy; rent was 2 weeks in credit when the tenancy was terminated by the tenant (in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act).
3. At the hearing, Mr Moodly, for the landlord acknowledged that the landlord is required to reimburse the tenant for 2 weeks rent. I have made an order accordingly.

4. At the hearing, Mr Moodly also confirmed that he will contact the tenant to facilitate payment.
5. As the tenant was the successful party, I have granted reimbursement of the Tribunal application fee and suppressed her details.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
