TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT [Event location suppressed]

APPLICANT:	[The applicant/s] Landlord
RESPONDENT:	[The respondent/s] Tenant
TENANCY ADDRESS:	[Tenancy address suppressed]

ORDER

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the landlord's and tenant's name and identifying details.
2. The application is withdrawn.

Reasons:

1. An application seeking termination of the tenancy was filed by the landlord on 28 July 2025.
2. The matter was set down for hearing on 25 August 2025.
3. At 9:02am on the day of hearing the landlord withdrew their application for termination of the tenancy as the tenants had vacated the property.
4. At 11:40am the tenant [tenant] dialled into the hearing. The Tribunal advised the tenant that the landlord's claim had been withdrawn and the hearing would not be proceeding. The tenant became argumentative with the Adjudicator, demanding the hearing proceed and wanting to make a counter claim.

5. The tenant was advised that should he wish to make a claim against the landlord then he should seek advice from Tenancy Service.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
