TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT REMOTE LOCATION

APPLICANT:	Prestige Rental Management Limited As Agent For Wei Lu Landlord
RESPONDENT:	Shavanna Morris-Webb Tenant
TENANCY ADDRESS:	4C Blue Gum Rise, Sunnyhills, Auckland 2010

ORDER

1. The tenancy of Shavanna Morris-Webb at 4C Blue Gum Rise, Sunnyhills, Auckland 2010 is terminated, and possession is granted to Prestige Rental Management Limited As Agent For Wei Lu, immediately.

Reasons:

1. The application was decided on the papers.
2. The landlord has applied for termination of the tenancy for abandonment through the expedited process under section 91AA Residential Tenancies Act 1986.

Are there grounds for an expedited application?

3. I am satisfied that the two requirements for the expedited process are met:
   a. The tenant does not want to contest the abandonment application.
   b. The information provided by the landlord with the application is sufficient to enable the Tribunal to determine it properly without a hearing (either on the basis of that information alone or with only minor clarifications).

Should the tenancy be terminated?

4. The Tribunal may terminate the tenancy where the premises have been abandoned and rent is in arrears at the hearing date. See section 61 Residential Tenancies Act 1986. A tenancy is abandoned where the tenant leaves the premises without reasonable excuse, not intending to return or to meet their obligations, and fails to notify the landlord.

5. On 15 July 2025 the landlord became aware (or ought to have been aware) that the tenant had abandoned the premises. The landlord said they had no response to multiple attempts to reach the tenant by email, text, phone and visits to the property. The landlord reported the neighbours said there was nobody coming and going at the property for more than a month, and that there was very minimal water use on water bills for the property. The landlord inspected the property on 14 August 2025 and provided an Inspection Report and photographs of the condition of the property. The photographs showed rotting food and dirty dishes left in the kitchen, rubbish and mess scattered throughout the property, many full rubbish bags left outside the property, multiple holes in walls and doors at the property, with attempts to plaster over those holes. I am persuaded by this evidence that the tenancy has been abandoned.

6. The landlord provided rent records which show there were rent arrears at the date of filing the application.

7. The tenant has not contested the claim.

8. All the requirements for an expedited abandonment application have been met. Because the premises have been abandoned, and rent is in arrears, I am terminating the tenancy immediately.

Please read carefully:

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
