TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT [Event location suppressed]

APPLICANT: [The applicant/s]

Landlord

RESPONDENT: Kerylyn Lewis

Tenant

TENANCY ADDRESS: [Tenancy address suppressed]

ORDER

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the Landlord name and identifying details.
2. The tenancy of Kerylyn Lewis at [Tenancy address suppressed] is terminated, and possession is granted to [The landlord/s], immediately.
3. The Bond Centre is to pay the bond of $1,600.00 ([Bond number suppressed]) to [The landlord/s] immediately.
4. Kerylyn Lewis must pay [The landlord/s] $678.00 immediately, calculated as shown in the table below:

Description	Landlord	Tenant
Rent arrears to 28/8/25 plus 21 days rent in lieu of notice	$2,250.00
Filing fee reimbursement	$28.00
Total award	$2,278.00
Bond	$1,600.00
Total payable by Tenant to Landlord	$678.00

Reasons:

1. The landlord attended the hearing, by telephone.

2. Unfortunately, the Tribunal was unable to contact the tenant via the telephone number provided in the application.
3. The landlord has applied for termination of the tenancy for abandonment, rent arrears and refund of the bond.

Should the tenancy be terminated?

4. The Tribunal may terminate the tenancy where the premises have been abandoned and rent is in arrear at the hearing date. See section 61 Residential Tenancies Act 1986. A tenancy is abandoned where the tenant leaves the premises without reasonable excuse, not intending to return or to meet their obligations, and fails to notify the landlord.
5. On 28/5/2025 the landlord became aware (or ought to have been aware) that the tenant had abandoned the premises.
6. As the premises have been abandoned, and rent is in arrear, the tenancy is terminated immediately.

How much does the tenant owe?

7. The landlord provided rent records which prove the amount owing.
8. However, because the evidence supports that the notice of rent increase was made within 12 months of the tenancy beginning the amount of arrears has been calculated at $400.00 per week.
9. A credit of $1,200.00 has been deducted from the arrears claimed for the 24 payments made by the tenant at the rate of $450.00 per week.
10. The amount ordered includes rent in lieu of notice.
11. As the landlord has been wholly successful with the claims, I must award the filing fee.
12. Suppression is granted to the landlord pursuant to section 95A because they were successful with the proceedings.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
