TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT [Event location suppressed]

APPLICANT: [The applicant/s]

Landlord

RESPONDENT: [The respondent/s]

Tenant

TENANCY ADDRESS: 399 Kimbolton Road, Feilding, Feilding 4702

CONSENT ORDER

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the parties' names and identifying details.
2. [The tenant/s] to pay [The landlord/s] $1,608.61 from the bond, calculated as shown in table below.
3. The Bond Centre is to pay the bond of $2,400.00 ([Bond number suppressed]) immediately apportioned as follows:

[The landlord/s]: $1,608.61

[The tenant/s]: $791.39

Description	Landlord	Tenant
Cleaning: oven	$74.75
Carpet Cleaning: stain removal	$178.25
Rubbish removal: pallets	$100.00
Rubbish removal: bark	$64.00
Repairs: rust	$84.48
Repairs: pet door	$127.13
Repairs: doors	$150.00
Replace furnishings: blind	$80.00
Repairs: shower	$750.00
Total award	$1,608.61
Bond	$1,608.61	$791.39

Reasons:

1. Both parties attended the hearing.
2. After hearing both parties and considering the evidence, the parties came to agreement over payment of compensation to the landlord as detailed in the table above.
3. The parties could have been referred back to mediation so that their agreement could be recorded in a mediated order. In that event, the order and the parties' names would not have been published. Referral to mediation would have postponed the resolution of this dispute and would have involved both parties in the cost of further time spent at a mediation conference.
4. The Tribunal is satisfied that the parties have been able to come to this agreement of their own free will, that it is fair on the evidence which it has heard and that it is a satisfactory outcome for both parties.
5. As the parties reached agreement by consent at the hearing and there are no matters of public interest in this order, it is appropriate that this order not be published so that the parties' names and the terms of their agreement are kept private and out of the public domain.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
