TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT AUCKLAND | TE TARAIPIUNARA RETIHANGA KI TĀMAKI MAKAURAU

APPLICANT: [The applicant/s]

Tenant

RESPONDENT: [The respondent/s]

Landlord

TENANCY ADDRESS: [Tenancy address suppressed]

ORDER

1. The Tribunal orders suppression of the names and identifying details of both parties.
2. [The landlord/s] must pay [The tenant/s] $454.29 immediately, in full and final settlement of all matters raised in both applications in relation to this tenancy.

Reasons:

1. Both parties attended the hearing.
2. The landlord raised a jurisdictional issue the Tribunal would have been required to consider and decide before it could address the substantive issues.
3. The parties elected to remain within the jurisdiction of the Tenancy Tribunal as they wished to resolve the issues raised in both applications.

4. From the bond of $1,000.00 held by the landlord, $454.29 will be paid to the tenant. The landlord will retain the balance.
5. This agreement is in full and final settlement of the issues raised in both applications.
6. Because the order is by consent and is akin to an agreement reached in meditation, which is a confidential process, I have suppressed the names and identifying details of both parties.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
