Reimbursement of fixed wastewater charges		$63.00
Garage remote replacement	$29.00
Locks/keys replacement	$698.95
Repairs: walls	$692.71

Cleaning	$150.00
Replacement front door mat	$10.00

Total award	$3,022.73	$63.00
Net award	$2,959.73
Bond	$2,600.00
Total payable by Tenant to Landlord	$359.73

2. The bond centre is to refund the bond of $2,600.00 to Kyle Armstrong and Rochelle Maria Armstrong immediately.

Reasons:

1. Both parties attended the hearing.
2. The landlord has applied for rent arrears, water rates, compensation, and refund of the bond following the end of the tenancy.
3. The tenancy commenced on 19 June 2025 and ended 8 weeks later on 28 August 2025.

4. The landlord provided rent records and water rates invoices which prove the amounts owing at the end of the tenancy.
5. I order reimbursement of fixed wastewater charges against the final water bill. Tenants are not liable to pay fixed charges on water accounts.

Did the tenant comply with their obligations at the end of the tenancy?

6. At the end of the tenancy the tenant must leave the premises reasonably clean and tidy, remove all rubbish, return all keys and security devices, and leave all chattels provided for their benefit. See section 40(1)(e)(ii)-(v) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
7. The tenant did not leave the premises reasonably clean and tidy, and did not remove all rubbish. I consider however that the lawns have been mowed and returned to the landlord in a reasonably tidy condition notwithstanding the grass clippings not being caught and removed entirely.
8. The tenant did not return all of the keys and did not return the garage remote.
9. The front door mat was missing.
10. The amounts ordered are proved.

Is the tenant responsible for the damage to the premises?

11. A landlord must prove that damage to the premises occurred during the tenancy and is more than fair wear and tear. If this is established, to avoid liability, the tenant must prove they did not carelessly or intentionally cause or permit the damage. Tenants are liable for the actions of people at the premises with their permission. See sections 40(2)(a), 41 and 49B RTA.
12. The following damage was caused during the tenancy: walls and sliding door. The damage is more than fair wear and tear, and the tenant has not disproved liability for the damage.
13. Only the amounts ordered are proved.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
