TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT REMOTE LOCATION | TE TARAIPIUNARA RETIHANGA

APPLICANT: Kāinga Ora–Homes And Communities

Landlord

RESPONDENT: [The respondent/s]

Tenant

TENANCY ADDRESS: 4 Endeavour Street, Te Hapara, Gisborne 4010

ORDER

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the Tenant name and identifying details.
2. [The tenant/s] owes Kāinga Ora–Homes And Communities $439.14 (“the debt”).
3. [The tenant/s] must pay rent and the debt as follows:
    a. By 21 weekly payments of $214.00, being $194.00 for rent and $20.00 for the debt.
    b. A final payment of $213.14, being $194.00 for rent and $19.14 for the debt.
    c. Payments will be every Wednesday, with the first payment on 18/02/2026 and continuing until 15/07/2026.
4. Payments will be allocated in the following order: rent and rent arrears.
5. If the tenant fails to pay rent and rent arrears within 2 working days of the due dates:
    a. The tenancy at 4 Endeavour Street, Te Hapara, Gisborne 4010 will terminate and the landlord will have immediate possession of the premises.
    b. The balance of the debt will be payable immediately.

6. [The tenant/s] must pay Kāinga Ora–Homes And Communities $439.14 being rent arrears to 12 February 2026:

Description	Landlord
Rent arrears	$439.14
Total award	$439.14
Total payable by Tenant to Landlord	$439.14

Reasons:

1. The landlord attended the hearing. The tenant did not attend the hearing. I rang the tenant on her mobile, but the call went unanswered. The tenant has not communicated with the Tribunal seeking an adjournment and has been served with the notice of hearing. I am proceeding with the hearing in her absence.
2. The landlord has applied for a conditional termination of the tenancy and rent arrears. The tenant wants to repay the debt to avoid immediate termination. Despite the tenant not attending the hearing the landlord and tenant have an arrangement that the tenant pays an extra $20.00 per week towards the arrears in addition to the rent.
3. The tenant has been adhering to this arrangement for some while. Therefore, I accept that the tenant wants to stay at the property and pay off the arrears.

Should a conditional termination order be made?

4. Where rent is at least 21 days in arrears on the date the application was filed, the Tribunal must make either a final or a conditional termination order. See section 55(1)(a) and (1A) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
5. I am satisfied the tenant will pay the debt within the period specified in the order and is unlikely to commit any further relevant breach. I have granted a conditional termination order.
6. The conditional termination order will lapse if it is fully complied with. If the tenant breaches the order, the possession order may be enforced for 90 days from the first breach. See section 64(4)(b) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
7. The landlord has applied for rent arrears and has provided rent records which prove the amount of $439.14 owing in rent arrears.
8. I am satisfied that the landlord has proven their claim for rent arrears.
9. The landlord seeks the suppression of the tenant's name and identifying details. As the rent arrears are under an arrangement and being repaid, I see no public interest in the name of the tenant being published. I am granting suppression of the tenant's name and identifying details.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
