TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT REMOTE LOCATION | TE TARAIPIUNARA RETIHANGA

APPLICANT:	Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities Landlord
RESPONDENT:	Kruze Hetekia Ronnie Thom Tenant
TENANCY ADDRESS:	3 MacEwen Place, Highbury, Palmerston North 4412

ORDER

1. Kruze Hetekia Ronnie Thom owes Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities $601.00 (“the debt”) being rent arrears to today’s date.
2. Kruze Hetekia Ronnie Thom must pay the debt as follows:
    a. By 60 weekly payments of $100.00, being $90.00 for rent and $10.00 for the debt.
    b. A final payment of $91.00, being $90.00 for rent and $1.00 for the debt.
    c. Payments will be every Wednesday, with the first payment on 20/05/2026 and continuing until 14/07/2027.
3. Payments will be allocated in the following order: rent, and the debt.
4. If the weekly rent payable is reassessed (either up or down) the weekly rent payable in order 2(a) and 2(b) above will be the reassessed amount.
5. If the tenant fails to pay rent and rent arrears within 5 working days of the due dates:
    a. The tenancy at 3 MacEwen Place, Highbury, Palmerston North 4412 will terminate and the landlord will have immediate possession of the premises.
    b. The balance of the debt will be payable immediately.

Reasons:

1. Only the landlord attended the hearing, which was held by video conference. Daniel Campbell represented the landlord.
2. The landlord has applied for termination of the tenancy and rent arrears but would prefer a conditional termination so that the rent arrears is repaid over time and the tenancy can continue.

Should a conditional termination order be made?

3. Where rent is at least 21 days in arrears on the date the application was filed, the Tribunal must make either a final or a conditional termination order. See section 55(1)(a) and (1A) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
4. I am satisfied the tenant will pay the debt within the period specified in the order and is unlikely to commit any further relevant breach. I have reached this conclusion because the landlord produced a rent summary showing that for the past six weeks tenant has been paying his weekly rent together with an additional sum of $10.00 towards the rent arrears. I was advised that these payments are automatically directed from WINZ and so are likely to continue.
5. I have granted a conditional termination order.
6. The conditional termination order will lapse if it is fully complied with. If the tenant breaches the order, the possession order may be enforced for 90 days from the first breach. See section 64(4)(b) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.

Please read carefully:

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.

If you require further help or information regarding this matter, visit tenancy.govt.nz/disputes/enforcing-decisions or phone Tenancy Services on 0800 836 262.
