[2026] NZTT 5515969

TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT

APPLICANT:	[The applicant/s] Landlord
RESPONDENT:	Sandra Baxter, Eden Baxter Tenant
TENANCY ADDRESS:	[Tenancy address suppressed]

Addendum

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the landlord's name and identifying details.
2. The Bond Centre is to pay the bond of $3,380.00 ([Bond number suppressed]) to [The applicant/s] immediately.

Reasons:

1. In the Tribunal's order dated 9 June 2026 no bond order was made.
2. The landlord has applied for, and is entitled to, the bond.
3. This order adds a bond order to the orders previously made.
4. Order 3 of the Tribunal's order dated 9 June 2026 is therefore reduced to $408.73 after the deduction of the bond.

5. Other than these amendments, the Tribunal's order dated 9 June 2026 remains as written.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
