Description	Landlord	Tenant
Rent arrears to 14.7.26	$2,076.99
Total award	$2,076.99
Total payable by Tenant to Landlord	$2,076.99

Reasons:

1. Both parties attended the hearing via remote video and telephone conference. The tenant was assisted by the court appointed Samoan interpreter.
2. The landlord has applied for termination of the tenancy and rent arrears. The tenant wants to repay the debt to avoid immediate termination.

Should a conditional termination order be made?

3. Where rent is at least 21 days in arrears on the date the application was filed, the Tribunal must make either a final or a conditional termination order. See section 55(1)(a) and (1A) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
4. I am satisfied the tenants will pay the debt within the period specified in the order and is unlikely to commit any further relevant breach. I have granted a conditional termination order.
5. The conditional termination order will lapse if it is fully complied with. If the tenant breaches the order, the possession order may be enforced for 90 days from the first breach. See section 64(4)(b) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
6. The landlord also provided an updated rent ledger confirming the rent arrears. Having sighted the landlord's evidence I am satisfied that the tenants are responsible for the rent debt.
7. The claim for rent arrears is proven.
