TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT [Event location suppressed]

| APPLICANT: | [The applicant/s]Landlord |
| RESPONDENT: | [The respondent/s]Tenant |
| TENANCY ADDRESS: | [Tenancy address suppressed] |

ORDER

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the parties' names and identifying details and the tenancy address.
2. The application for termination under the expedited abandonment process is not granted.
3. The application is referred to Tenancy Services for a full hearing to be scheduled.

Reasons:

1. The application was decided on the papers.
2. The landlord has applied for termination of the tenancy for abandonment through the expedited process under section 91AA Residential Tenancies Act 1986.

Are there grounds for an expedited application?

3. The two requirements for the expedited process are:
    a. The tenant does not want to contest the abandonment application.

b. The information provided by the landlord with the application is sufficient to enable the Tribunal to determine it properly without a hearing (either on the basis of the information alone or with only minor clarifications).

4. If the requirements for the expedited process are met, the Tribunal may terminate the tenancy where the premises have been abandoned and rent is in arrear at the hearing date. See section 61 Residential Tenancies Act 1986.

5. I am not satisfied that both conditions for the expedited process are met. A tenancy is abandoned where the tenant leaves the premises without reasonable excuse, not intending to return or to meet their obligations, and fails to notify the landlord. Here, the landlord said the tenant emailed them saying they wanted to terminate the tenancy and agreeing to pay rent arrears. The fact there is a continuing fixed-term tenancy means the tenant could be in breach but that is a different application. Further, the landlord did not provide any photographs or inspection reports about the condition of the property that might have showed it was abandoned, nor did they provide any copies of texts or emails between the parties relating to the claim.

6. The information provided by the landlord with this application is not sufficient to enable the Tribunal to determine it properly without a hearing.

7. I have allowed name suppression because the matter has not been finalised.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
