TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT REMOTE LOCATION | TE TARAIPIUNARA RETIHANGA

APPLICANT:	Barfoot & Thompson Limited As Agent For The Owner Tapp Property Group Ltd, Kevin Tapp Landlord
RESPONDENT:	Sarah Noble Tenant
TENANCY ADDRESS:	17 Murray Ward Drive, Te Kauwhata, Te Kauwhata 3710

ORDER

1. Sarah Noble must pay Barfoot & Thompson Limited As Agent For The Owner Tapp Property Group Ltd, Kevin Tapp $27.44 immediately, calculated as shown in table below.
2. The Bond Centre is to pay the bond of $1,359.56 (BN-10077123) to Barfoot & Thompson Limited As Agent For The Owner Tapp Property Group Ltd, Kevin Tapp immediately.

Description	Landlord	Tenant
Repairs: wall damage from attempted repairs	$1,359.00
Filing fee reimbursement	$28.00
Total award	$1,387.00
Bond	$1,359.56
Total payable by Tenant to Landlord	$27.44

Reasons:

1. The Landlord attended the hearing. The Tenant did not appear.
2. The Landlord applied for compensation, reimbursement of the filing fee and refund of the bond.

Is the tenant responsible for the damage to the premises?

3. A landlord must prove that damage to the premises occurred during the tenancy and is more than fair wear and tear. If this is established, to avoid liability, the tenant must prove they did not carelessly or intentionally cause or permit the damage. Tenants are liable for the actions of people at the premises with their permission. See sections 40(2)(a), 41 and 49B RTA.
4. Where the damage is careless, and occurs after 27 August 2019, section 49B RTA applies. If the landlord becomes aware of the damage after 27 August, the damage is presumed to have occurred after that date unless the tenant proves otherwise.
5. Where the damage is caused carelessly, and is covered by the landlord's insurance, the tenant's liability is limited to the lesser of the insurance excess or four weeks' rent (or four weeks' market rent in the case of a tenant paying income-related rent). See section 49B(3)(a) RTA.
6. Where the damage is careless and is not covered by the landlord's insurance, the tenant's liability is limited to four weeks' rent (or market rent). See section 49B(3)(b) RTA. Where insurance money is irrecoverable because of the tenant's conduct, the property is treated as if it is not insured against the damage. See section 49B(3A)(a) RTA.
7. Tenants are liable for the cost of repairing damage that is intentional or which results from any activity at the premises that is an imprisonable offence. This applies to anything the tenant does and anything done by a person they are responsible for. See section 49B(1) RTA.
8. Damage is intentional where a person intends to cause damage and takes the necessary steps to achieve that purpose. Damage is also intentional where a person does something, or allows a situation to continue, knowing that damage is a certainty. See Guo v Korck [2019] NZHC 1541.
9. The following damage was caused during the tenancy: damage to the walls from attempted repairs in the lounge, kitchen, garage, bedrooms, hallway and laundry. The Landlord stated this was a brand-new house at the start of the tenancy and the tenants were the first occupants. Photographs of the damage were provided and an invoice confirming there were 19 walls that required repairing because the paint patches did not match the original colour. The damage is more than fair wear and tear, and the tenant has not disproved liability for the damage.
10. The amounts ordered are proved.
11. I have taken into account betterment and depreciation. The landlord should be returned to the position they would have been in had the tenant not breached their obligations, and should not be better or worse off. In calculating depreciation, I have taken into account the age and condition of the items at the start of the tenancy and their likely useful lifespan.

12. Barfoot & Thompson Limited As Agent For The Owner Tapp Property Group Ltd, Kevin Tapp has wholly succeeded with the claim the Tenant must reimburse the filing fee.

Please read carefully:

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.
A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.
You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $260. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order, or the failure to make an order, where the amount in dispute on appeal is less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work, or the failure to make an order, where the value of the work in dispute on appeal is less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.

If you require further help or information regarding this matter, visit tenancy.govt.nz/disputes/enforcing-decisions or phone Tenancy Services on 0800 836 262.
