WAITANGI TRIBUNAL

Wai 3071

CONCERNING the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

AND a claim by Emily Holden under Te Atiawa Rangatiratanga Mana Whakahaere o Aotearoa for all Māori with grieances of homelessness, poor healthcare and education issues.

MEMORANDUM-DIRECTIONS OF THE CHAIRPERSON

The Registrar will please enter this matter on the register of claims and give it the next available Wai number. The register should note that the claim was received on 4 October 2021.

The claimant should please take note of the 'Wai' number reference at the top of the page. Please use this claim number in any communication with the Tribunal.

This claim is lodged by Emily Holden under Te Atiawa Rangatiratanga Mana Whakahaere o Aotearoa (Te Atiawa Sovereign Authority of New Zealand) for all Māori who have grievances of homelessness, poor healthcare and education issues. The claimant alleges that the Crown has breached the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi by denying education, kainga ora housing and healthcare.

The claimant does not seek any specific relief at this stage.

The claimant may amend this claim at a later stage. In any case the Tribunal may require the claimant to prepare a fully particularised statement of claim before the claim can be heard.

The Tribunal currently runs district and kaupapa inquiry programmes in which claims are grouped either by district or by kaupapa (thematic) issue. Historical claims are those that raise grievances which arose before 21 September 1992. Contemporary claims have grievances that arose on or after that date. Some claims have both historical and contemporary grievances.

The allegations made in this claim are contemporary in nature. They pertain to housing, health and education and as such may be best suited for consideration in the Health Services and Outcomes Kaupapa Inquiry, the Housing Policy and Services Kaupapa Inquiry and a future Education Services and Outcomes Kaupapa Inquiry.

The claimant should also note that this claim is registered only insofar as it concerns contemporary allegations of Treaty breaches by the Crown.

When the time comes for the claim to be prepared for hearing, the Tribunal will decide whether there are any matters in the present claim that the Tribunal may not inquire into. The claimant needs to be aware that there are some matters that the Tribunal is not allowed to inquire into, such as any Bill that has been introduced into Parliament (unless the Bill has been referred to the Tribunal under section 8 of the Act). Also, when historical claims are settled, the settlement legislation usually forbids the Tribunal from inquiring further into the matters that have been settled.

The claimant also needs to be aware that the Tribunal does not make settlements. After the Tribunal has completed an inquiry into claims, it writes a report making recommendations to the Crown. It cannot tell the Crown what to do; it may only recommend that the Crown acts to address the negative consequences of its breaches of the principles of the Treaty.

Legal Aid Services provides help for Waitangi Tribunal claimants. For advice on getting a lawyer or receiving funding, please contact Legal Aid Services at their Wellington central office or one of the local offices; the claimant should check their telephone directory for contact details.
