

APPENDIX A – TRANSCRIPT CORRECTIONS

Page #, Line #	The mistake	The correction
Page 511; Line 8	I'm sorry Ms Fellows ,	I'm sorry Ms Fellowes ,
Page 512; Line 10-13	So would it be correct to say that a reserve that was intended to be inalienable had its restrictions quickly undone with allowing it to be partitioned in 1904 and then (inaudible 10:18:10) it into more long-term leases.	So would it be correct to say that a reserve that was intended to be inalienable had its restrictions quickly undone with allowing it to be partitioned in 1904 and then entering it into more long-term leases.

RECEIVED

Waitangi Tribunal

13 Feb 25Ministry of Justice
WELLINGTON