Introduction

1. This memorandum of counsel is filed on behalf of counsel and claimants who have filed statements of position and are participating in the third wānanga-ā-rohe to be held on 26 June 2025, at the Waitangi Tribunal Offices (141 The Terrance, Wellington).

Draft timetable

2. By email of the Registrar dated 18 June 2025, her Honour Chief Judge Dr C L Fox directed parties participating in the third wānanga to confer and file a joint draft timetable by 5pm, Monday 23 June 2025.

3. Counsel have conferred and agreed the draft timetable attached as Appendix "A".

4. By memorandum-directions dated 4 June 2025, the Tribunal acknowledged that statements of position had been received from the following claimants seeking to participate in the third wānanga:
   (a) Evelyn Ratima;
   (b) Teina Boasa-Dean;
   (c) Mike Tana; and
   (d) The New Zealand Māori Council.

5. Her Honour declined leave to Evelyn Ratima to present on the basis that she had already presented at the second wānanga, and that a second attendance would invite other claimants to take the same course. Accordingly, Evelyn Ratima is not included in the draft timetable.

6. By email of the Registrar dated 18 June 2025, the Tribunal granted leave to Matthew Mullany and Hori Reti to present their position on behalf of the Wai 3051 claim and claimants. Accordingly, Mr Mullany and Mr Reti have been included in the draft timetable.

7. On 23 June 2025, the Registrar emailed a request for final RSVPs ahead of the third wānanga. Following this, Counsel have confirmed with the Registry that no further RSVPs have been received.

8. Counsel submits that the parties participating at the third wānanga will be:

   (a) Matthew Mullany and Hori Reti;

   (b) Teina Boasa-Dean;

   (c) Mike Tana;

   (d) The New Zealand Māori Council; and

   (e) Crown Law.

9. If the Tribunal grants further leave for additional parties to participate, Counsel will update and refile the timetable accordingly.

10. Counsel notes that the draft timetable concludes after lunch reflecting the low number of participants seeking to present at the third wānanga.
