I Heeni Jayne Ranginui and Jenny Ranginui-Tamakehu, home executives belonging to Te Wai Nui A Rua, Whanganui.

For ourselves and the descendants of Heeni Matene, alias Heeni Tunganekore, Heni Manson and her husband Pokairangi Ranginui, alias Pokairangi Tamaikuku, Po Ranginui being our grandparents.

Claim we are prejudicially affected by the Crowns breaches of the Treaty of Waitangi and its compounding detrimental effects to the present day.

The Crown failed to give cause and effect to the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.

The Crown failed to recognise and protect the lores, customs, cultural and spiritual heritage of our Tupuna.

The Crown by its Orders in Council has purposely breached with knowledge the Treaty of Waitangi as in Article the Second.

That the Crown policies and practises or actions or omissions of the Crown and its agents or in relations to acts of Parliament or other statutory instruments have breached the Crowns Treaty obligations.

Those being Public Works, Scenic Preservation, Amalgamation of Lands, Death Duties Act, Rating Act and the Resource Management Act.

We have no legal representation at this time.
