

APPENDIX A

TRANSCRIPT CORRECTIONS FOR WĀNANGA TUAONO FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL
KAUPAPA INQUIRY FROM 1 TO 4 DECEMBER 2025

WAI 3300 #4.1.013

Page	Line	Reads	Should Read
166	16	And we are – okay, when are we here?	okay, we know we’re here...
166	20	The primary author off that who wrote 90 percent	The primary author of that who wrote 90 percent
166	25	Now, the report that we’ve seeing,	Now, the report will have been seen,
167	21	and it includes in there, to manaaki our manuhiri,	and it includes the need, to manaaki our manuhiri,
168	24-25	He Whakaputanga and Te Tiriti. In constitutional transformation is required to rebalance the country on its foundation	...He Whakaputanga and Te Tiriti and constitutional transformation is required to rebalance the country on its constitutional foundation
168	29	All peoples would have a respected constitutional place in this.	All peoples would have a respected constitutional place in this country.
169	3	...fully available for all and it has always been my understanding	...fully available for everyone and it has always been my understanding
169	30-31	In terms of education, have a bachelor’s degree or higher, in the general population it’s 37 percent,	In terms of education, for a bachelor’s degree or higher, 21 % of Māori have a bachelors degree or higher, in the general population it’s 37 percent,
171	1	Now, between 2022 and 2022,	Now, between 2020 and 2022,
171	15	particularly in on the (inaudible 11:58:41)	Particularly in on Nanaia Mahuta
178	8-9	and learn to, you know, by civil to each other.	and learn to, you know, be civil to each other.
180	21	because it recks your whole system.	because it wrecks your whole system.
181	2-3	It’s really exhilarated stuff	That’s really accelerated stuff
181	23	they are being increasingly taunted by supportive Pākehā	they are being increasingly countered by supportive Pākehā
183	10	White (inaudible 12:31:18) protestant rather than Catholic.	White Anglo-Saxon protestant rather than Catholic.

RECEIVED
Waitangi Tribunal
9 Feb 26
Ministry of Justice WELLINGTON