Wai 898

IN THE WAITANGI TRIBUNAL

CONCERNING the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

AND the Te Rohe Pōtae District Inquiry (Wai 898)

MEMORANDUM-DIRECTIONS OF JUDGE D J AMBLER REGARDING INQUIRY PROGRESS 11 November 2011

Tēnā koutou

1. Introduction

1.1 In this memorandum-directions I address matters raised by parties in submissions filed in response to my memorandum-directions of 19 September and 17 October 2011 (Wai 898, #2.5.100 and #2.5.101), and advise of revisions to the inquiry timetable.

2. Research

Tribunal-commissioned research

2.1 The Tribunal's Acting Chief Historian Richard Moorsom made recommendations as to outstanding socio-economic research projects at the judicial conference on 24 August 2011. After consideration and staff appraisal of the documents in question, I accept these recommendations, namely that:

i. The socio-demographic profile report be re-commissioned. I commissioned Tribunal staff researcher Dr Helen Robinson to prepare this report (Wai 898, #2.3.78);
ii. Mr Tony Walzl's collection of socio-economic archival documents be filed as a document bank; and
iii. The casebook review address the question of whether an economic capabilities overview report ought to be commissioned.

Claimant-commissioned research

2.2 Crown counsel Geoff Melvin has indicated that the Crown may seek leave to file research in response to claimant commissioned research after it is filed. That is appropriate.

Reports from other inquiries nominated to go on the Wai 898 record of inquiry

2.3 In response to my memorandum-directions, Mark McGhie identified 359 pages from Document Bank to Accompany Central Claims Charitable Trust Oral and Traditional History Report (Wai 903, #A152(j)), as well as 10 pages from the document bank accompanying Marama Laurenson's report, The Crown's Acquisition of the Waimarino Block (Wai 903, #A9(a)) as relevant to this inquiry, and nominated them to be placed on the Wai 898 record of inquiry (Wai 898, #3.1.378).

2.4 Tribunal staff have reviewed this material and confirmed its relevance. Mr McGhie is to compile this material into a document bank, as suggested in his submission (Wai 898, #3.1.378), and submit the document for filing on the Wai 898 record of inquiry.

2.5 Mr Melvin sought clarification on the status that evidence from other inquiries will have in this inquiry, particularly in regard to cross-examination (Wai 898, 3.1.379). That evidence is received as written evidence without the expectation that the author will appear and be subject to cross-examination. Leave would need to be sought to call the author as a witness and special circumstances would need to exist before leave would be granted.

3. Crown concessions and discrete remedies

3.1 The Crown has indicated the likely nature of concessions for this inquiry. The Crown has also clarified its position in regard to a discrete remedies process. In light of the Crown's position on a discrete remedies process it is difficult to see how it could possibly work in this inquiry.

4. Tribunal Statement of Issues

4.1 Parties have no objection to Wai 898 commissionees assisting in the preparation of the Tribunal's Statement of Issues, as long as their role is secondary and they are not in contact with the Tribunal panel. It is axiomatic that the Statement of Issues is the Tribunal panel's document.

5. Unrepresented claimants

5.1 Claimant counsel suggest the appointment of an amicus curiae to assist unrepresented claimants' involvement in the inquiry. I see no merit in this suggestion at this point in time. Unrepresented claimants have an abundance of existing counsel to choose from to advance their claims.

5.2 Counsel also suggested that Tribunal staff could play an increased role. Tribunal staff are already available to assist represented and unrepresented claimants in terms of inquiry involvement and progress, and any questions relating to general Tribunal process.

6. Presentation of evidence

6.1 CFRT requested an early indication from counsel as to how many Trust-commissioned research report writers are likely to be required to produce two summaries for hearings. This matter will be discussed at the judicial conferences that concern hearing preparation.

7. Revisions to the inquiry timetable

7.1 The two outstanding Tribunal-commissioned research reports by Cathy Marr, and Drs Paul Husbands & James Mitchell are now due to be filed by Friday 25 November 2011.

7.2 Counsel proposed that the filing date for final Amended Statements of Claim (ASOCs) should remain as directed (18 November 2011). However, to incorporate information that may arise from the delayed research, claimants and counsel requested until 9 December 2011 to file discrete amendments to final ASOCs. I do not want to promote the further amendment of ASOCs which will clutter the Record of Inquiry. Instead, I will extend the deadline for the ASOCs to midday, Friday 9 December 2011.

7.3 Consequently, requests to consolidate or aggregate claims into this inquiry are now also due midday, Friday 9 December 2011.

7.4 Claimant counsel did not see a need to change the date for filing the Claimant Statement of Issues (CSOI). Nevertheless, given the extension of the date for ASOCs, I consider a small extension is necessary. The CSOIs are now due midday, Thursday 22 December 2011.

7.5 Mr Melvin sought an extension of the filing of the Crown Statement of Position and Concessions (CSPC) to be commensurate with the extension granted to claimants. Subsequently, Mr Melvin has advised Tribunal staff that an extension to 19 March 2012 is sought. I am concerned that granting an extension of three weeks will have a significant impact on the overall timetable. In effect, the extension to the claimants is one week; the Crown is to plead in response to the CSOIs only. The Crown will have the updated pleadings by the Christmas break and, deducting the two week holiday period, will have over seven weeks to the end of February to finalise its position. A further week is appropriate. The Crown is to file its CSPC by midday, Wednesday 7 March 2012.

7.6 Mr Melvin proposes an extension to the filing date for Crown research to maintain a six-month period from what will effectively be casebook closure. This extension is granted, and Crown research is now due 31 May 2012.

7.7 To coincide with the Crown research filing date, I extend the filing date for claimant-commissioned research, oral and traditional research, and gap filling research to 31 May 2012.

7.8 The filing date for requests to have evidence from other inquiries placed on the Wai 898 record of inquiry is also extended to 31 May 2012.

7.9 In accordance with the above changes, the Tribunal's draft Statement of Issues (SOI) is now due 5 April 2011. The subsequent judicial conference is now shifted to 23 April 2012. The due date of 11 May 2012 for the Tribunal's final SOI remains unchanged. Hearings also remain scheduled to commence in August 2012.

7.10 A revised inquiry timetable is attached to this direction as Appendix A.

8 List of participating claims

8.1 Counsel are to inform the Waitangi Tribunal Registrar by emailing wt.registrar@justice.govt.nz of any errors or corrections to this list. If required, counsel should file memoranda notifying the Tribunal of a change of solicitor and address of service.
