MAY IT PLEASE THE TRIBUNAL

1. This Memorandum of Counsel and accompanying report are filed in the Wai 1040 te Paparahi o Te Raki Inquiry in accordance with the Directions of the Tribunal, most recently in the Memorandum-Directions dated 20 December 2012 (Wai 1040, #2.5.144 at paragraphs 17-18).
2. This Memorandum is filed jointly by Morrison Kent and Woodward Law on behalf of claimants whose claims are associated with the Tai Tokerau District Maori Council.
3. Counsel accordingly seek leave to file herewith the Mana Whenua Report written by Tony Walzl on behalf of the Tai Tokerau District Maori Council Hapu Claims Collective, together with its associated Document Bank, and request that this Report be filed as evidence in the Te Paparahi o Te Raki Inquiry (Wai 1040).
4. Counsel also note that due to the size of the Report, together with its associated Document Bank, it has not been served on parties and accordingly request that the Tribunal makes provision for appropriate distribution.

Dated at Wellington, this 20th day of December 2012

Dr Bryan Gilling
