Suggested Amendments to the Draft Transcript for Hearing Week Two

406	5	…Dr Frame has some expertise in these matters and so the purpose of his evidence is to, if you like, avail the Tribunal of that expertise.
406	18	…short timeframe that we have and I was wondering Sir if there were, any further thought had been given to the proposition that was put by my friend Mr Tootill about questions being submitted in writing.
407	8	Mr Chairman, I wonder if this may or may not be of assistance.
412	7	In fact, and I'm flying ahead there, in fact there are three, if you look at my page 4, it's – it said there were three things involved in this Diceyan view of sovereignty.
416	4	…They were evolving views of sovereignty and they had at times contradictory policies and models, whether New Zealand was a settled colony or a ceded colony, that …
420	27	…So that's the first part of what I had to say.
422	4	And the only one other example, well I perhaps draw to your attention immediately over the page, …
432	15	…At the time of the Treaty, the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi, jus gentium was the applicable law?
433	1	Jus gentium was – sorry I missed one word.
433	8	Right and at that time, according to Dr McHugh, the principal accepted text on jus gentium was Martell's Law of Nations.
444	13	Yes, I have to be a bit cautions about too wide a ….
463	18	…covenant. And that proposition is further articulated in paragraph (a),…
479	6	Yeah. So what I take from that though is that, is that you're not suggesting he's saying that the Treaty has no legal impact so it's not an entirely political document.
480	12	I mean doesn't that give us an indication of how you might interpret treaties…
481	2	Would you agree with the proposition that it gives you an indication as to the approach you might take for interpretation?
