WAITANGI TRIBUNAL

Wai 2200

CONCERNING the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

AND the Porirua ki Manawatū District Inquiry

MEMORANDUM-DIRECTIONS OF JUDGE C L FOX RELATING TO INQUIRY PLANNING

Tēnā koutou katoa

Introduction

1. In his memorandum-directions of 2 July 2010 the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal, Chief Judge Isaac, appointed me as the presiding officer in the Porirua ki Manawatū District Inquiry (Wai 2200 #2.5.10). These memorandum-directions address a number of administrative issues that need to be dealt with in consultation with all parties in advance of any further planning.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

Turakina Māori Girls College

2. There are two claims that fall in the inquiry district, Wai 1641 (Turakina Māori Girls College claim) and Wai 1707 (Mana Wahine (Mitai-Pehi) claim), relating to Turakina Māori Girls College in Marton. It appears that these claims may raise issues that are more generic in nature raising issues concerning the status of Maori women and mana wahine. These claims have featured around the country in a number of different inquiry districts. It has been the intention of the Tribunal to hear all such claims at the conclusion of the district inquiry programme. That could be anywhere between three to five years from now. We are awaiting a final decision from the Chairperson on the matter.

3. However, if Wai 1641 and Wai 1707 remain to be heard in this district, I note that two of my daughters are former pupils of this school. As a result, I believe that I may have a direct conflict of interest in relation to these claims and I will therefore recuse myself from presiding over these claims.

4. As a result of discussions with the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson it has been agreed that if it is necessary, the panel to hear these claims should consist of the Wai 2200 panel members, who will sit with a different presiding officer. The claims will be heard, subject to the views of counsel representing these claimants, at the conclusion of the historical inquiry and report release.

Knowledge of Counsel

5. I would like to declare that I know nearly all counsel for the claimants. However, I know the following counsel reasonably well. Ms Kathy Ertel, Mr Maui Solomon, Ms Atareta Poananga (who is a distant cousin), Ms Moana Sinclair, Professor Boast (who has been a colleague at Victoria University), Ms Donna Hall, Ms Nadine Warbrick (who now works for the Maori Land Court), Mr Matanuku Mahuika (who is a distant cousin), Mr Charl Hirschfeld (who is my first cousin) and Ms Annette Sykes. I do not think that my relationship with any of these people will affect my ability to act impartially and in accordance with my judicial oath but I am prepared to hear from counsel on the matter.

Te Wānanga o Raukawa

6. During the period 1990-2000, I was a guest tutor for the Laws and Philosophy Degree Programme operated through Te Wānanga o Raukawa. When I became a Māori Land Court judge I ceased this practice but I have been invited back and given two lectures at the wānanga. In 2008, while on sabbatical, I was a student of Te Ururangi o te Matauranga, an outpost facility on the East Coast of the North Island operated through Te Wānanga o Raukawa.

7. If any claimant counsel, Crown counsel or unrepresented claimant wishes to comment on these matters, they may file submissions by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Claims that are potentially outside the scope of the Wai 2200 Inquiry

Treaty settlements policies

8. I note that the claim Wai 1729 appears to relate to the Crown's Treaty settlements policies. The Tribunal has not conducted an inquiry into all Treaty settlements but the findings of the Te Arawa Settlement Process Report (Wai 1353) and the Tāmaki Makaurau Settlement Process Report (Wai 1362) may mean that these issues do not need to be considered by this Tribunal.

9. Could counsel for these claimants and Crown counsel file submissions indicating whether this claim should be heard in the Porirua ki Manawatū District Inquiry and, if so, how these claims differ from those considered by the Te Arawa and Tāmaki Makaurau Tribunals. Submissions are due by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Hutt Valley wars

10. There are two claims that raise issues relating to the military engagement in the Heretaunga Valley in 1846 and the expulsion of Whanganui prisoners from the Hutt Valley that same year (Wai 1623 on behalf of Ngāti Rangatahi ki Rangitikei and Te Hirii Mahuta Marae and Wai 48, 81 and 146 on behalf of Ngāti Hāua).

The issue of Whanganui prisoners from the Hutt Valley wars was raised by Ngāti Rangatahi in the Whanganui-a-Tara inquiry. That Tribunal made findings relating to Ngāti Rangatahi but none of those findings covered the Whanganui prisoners including Ngāti Hāua. In the Whanganui District Inquiry, the presiding officer Her Honour Judge Wainwright decided that as the events did not take place within that inquiry district, the Wai 903 Tribunal would not consider those matters.

11. Mr Maui Solomon, counsel for Ngāti Rangatahi (Wai 366 and Wai 1064), submits that it is inappropriate and an improper use of the Tribunal process for claimants to seek to re-litigate in this inquiry the same historical events surrounding military expulsion from the Hutt Valley which have already been the subject of inquiry and finding by the Whanganui-a-Tara Tribunal (Wai 2200 #3.1.90). Mr Solomon seeks a direction from the Porirua ki Manawatū Tribunal stating that these events do not form part of this inquiry.

12. Mr Spencer Webster, counsel for Ngāti Hāua, responded that Ngāti Hāua are not seeking to re-litigate any Ngāti Rangatahi claims; they are seeking to advance their own claims (Wai 2200 #3.1.92).

13. Any further submissions on whether this Tribunal should hear the claims relating to military engagement in the Hutt Valley in the 1840s and the subsequent expulsion and detention of prisoners, are to be filed no later than 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Planning for the Inquiry

14. The Tribunal is mindful that the Government has affirmed the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples with the following caveat:

    - In moving to support the Declaration, New Zealand both affirms those rights and reaffirms the legal and constitutional frameworks that underpin New Zealand's legal system. Those existing frameworks, while they will continue to evolve in accordance with New Zealand's domestic circumstances, define the bounds of New Zealand's engagement with the aspirational elements of the Declaration.

15. In particular, I note the following articles of the Declaration:

    - Article 27: States shall establish and implement, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, a fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent process, giving due recognition to indigenous peoples' laws, traditions, customs and land tenure systems, to recognize and adjudicate the rights of indigenous peoples pertaining to their lands, territories and resources, including those that were traditionally owned or otherwise occupied or used. Indigenous peoples shall have the right to participate in this process.

    - Article 31:

        i. Indigenous peoples have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their cultural heritage, traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expressions, as well as the manifestations of their sciences, technologies and cultures, including human and genetic resources, seeds, medicines, knowledge of the properties of fauna and flora, oral traditions, literatures, designs, sports and traditional games and visual and performing arts. They also have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their intellectual property over such cultural heritage, traditional knowledge, and traditional cultural expressions.

ii. In conjunction with indigenous peoples, States shall take effective measures to recognize and protect the exercise of these rights.

- Article 40:

  Indigenous peoples have the right to access to and prompt decision through just and fair procedures for the resolution of conflicts and disputes with States or other parties, as well as to effective remedies for all infringements of their individual and collective rights. Such a decision shall give due consideration to the customs, traditions, rules and legal systems of the indigenous peoples concerned and international human rights.

16. There are several relevant issues that need to be addressed concerning how the inquiry should proceed and we would be interested to know whether the Tribunal should do so in a manner consistent with the Treaty of Waitangi and the above articles but subject to the caveats placed on the Government's affirmation of the Declaration. The most important issue is what type of inquiry the parties wish to pursue. In the past the Tribunal has tended to use one of the three following models:

    a) The Old Style approach, most recently adopted in the Northern South Island inquiry;

    b) The Standard New Approach model, developed in the Gisborne inquiry; and

    c) The Modular New Approach, developed in the Central North Island inquiry.

17. A more detailed paper explaining these models, and variations on them, will be circulated within six weeks of the issuing of this direction. In addition to these models, a completely new model could be fashioned around the needs of the parties. If a new model is preferred, the Tribunal would appreciate having a detailed paper on the proposals. In particular, full details should be provided as to how the issues below should be dealt with. All claimant counsel, Crown counsel or any unrepresented claimants should make submissions on this issue by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

18. The Tribunal will also circulate a detailed paper on the nature of the research identified to date for this inquiry district. This paper will be circulated within six weeks. All claimant counsel, Crown counsel or any unrepresented claimants should make submissions on this matter by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

19. Once the Tribunal has had the opportunity to consider the submissions, and produce a discussion document, we intend to hold a judicial conference to discuss these matters. Making a decision on these issues early is important because the answer to these questions will determine the following issues:

- The co-ordination of research – who should do this? CFRT, the Tribunal, a Research Co-ordinating Committee, the claimants or a combination;
- The depth and nature of the traditional and oral history research needed to complete the research casebook;
- Research hui – traditional and customary evidence wānanga and research hui;
- The depth and nature of the technical historical research needed to complete the research casebook. Is this research to be comprehensive, or focused on priority issues, or directed at specific case studies, or some other variant?
- Co-ordination of claimant clustering for the inquiry programme;
- Pre-conferencing – the Tribunal has a budget for three judicial conferences for the 2010-2011 year;
- Appropriate venues for judicial conferences;
- The timing of hearings (2011-2012 or 2012-2013) and the number of hearings for generic and detailed claimant evidence;
- Appropriate places and venues for hearings; and
- The desired/aspirational reporting date.

20. As you are aware, the boundaries for this district inquiry were defined in the Tribunal's directions of 24 September 2009 (Wai 2200 #2.5.9). If parties have any queries or concerns about the boundaries, they may file submissions by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

21. To assist planning, it will be helpful to know what role the Crown Forestry Rental Trust intend to play in this inquiry. The Trust will please provide this information by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Claims in this inquiry district

22. The Tribunal has done a preliminary assessment and ascertained a list of claims that appear to fall within the Porirua ki Manawatū District Inquiry. The list is attached to this direction as Appendix 1. This list is likely to change once further assessment has taken place and submissions have been received. If there are any additions or amendments to this list, it would be helpful if parties could notify the Tribunal by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Hapū and Marae Survey

23. There are approximately a hundred claims in this district. The Tribunal has already gleaned an understanding of the claimants, but wishes to explore further the nature of claimants who are to be heard. Thus it would be useful to begin the process of discovering more about each individual claimant, the hapū and iwi they affiliate to, and their associated marae and the location of those marae. In addition, for those claimants representing the overarching tribal claims, it would be useful to obtain detailed lists of all tribal marae and their locations and the associated hapū. A draft survey paper will be circulated within the next six weeks.

24. All claimant counsel, Crown counsel or any unrepresented claimants should make submissions on this issue, the draft survey form and any other related issue that should be bought to the attention of the Tribunal. Submissions are due by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Claimants in direct negotiations with the Crown

25. The Tribunal is aware that the Crown is currently engaged in settlement discussions with several groups in this region, and that legislation is before the house regarding the Ngāti Apa settlement. It would assist the Tribunal if Crown counsel could indicate how they believe these discussions may affect the Tribunal's inquiry in this district. It would also be useful to hear from groups in discussion with the Crown regarding to what extent, and if at all, they wish to participate in the Tribunal process. Submissions are due by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

Inter-relationship between the Taihape Inquiry and this Inquiry

26. In the directions that established the Taihape and Porirua ki Manawatū inquiry districts, the then Deputy Chairperson commented that the Tribunal would try to ensure that the two districts have a kaumātua member in common, and that the two inquiry panels would have one or two joint hearings (Wai 2200 #2.5.9).

27. It is now unlikely that there will be a kaumātua member in common between these Tribunal panels. However the possibility of having another member from the Taihape Tribunal panel has not yet been ruled out. Parties are free to make submissions on these issues by 12 noon, Thursday 14 October 2010.

We look forward to hearing from you all. Ma te atua koutou e manaki. Tēnā koutou.

The Registrar is to send a copy of this direction to all those on the notification list for Wai 2200, the combined record of inquiry for the Porirua ki Manawatū Inquiry.

DATED at Wellington this 18th day of August 2010
