MAY IT PLEASE THE TRIBUNAL:

Introduction

1. On 23 June 2014, the Crown filed a number of briefs of evidence for hearing week 14. Two of the briefs, those of Brendon Mikkelsen and Marc Griffiths, were unsigned. The Crown files with this memorandum the signed briefs.

Amendments to the briefs of evidence

Mr Mikkelsen's brief of evidence

2. The brief of evidence of Mr Mikkelsen has been amended in a number of respects. The one substantive amendment is the addition of the final bullet point in para 18, which reads:

    - 305 had incomplete data outcomes (pre the year 2000).

3. The other changes to Mr Mikkelsen's brief are typographical corrections, as follows:

    3.1 In para 9, the first word of the second point is now "The" in place of "the".

    3.2 In the first sentence in para 10, "district" is now "District".

    3.3 In the second sentence in para 11, "river settlement" is now "River Settlement".

    3.4 In para 23, "(Quota Management System)" has been added following "QMS".

    3.5 On the last page, the deponent's first name has been corrected to "Brendon".

Dr Griffith's brief of evidence

4. There is one change to the brief of evidence of Dr Griffiths. In para 44, the last part of the sentence was "and is currently more than likely to be above the average for the period 1989/90 to 2011/12" and now reads "and is currently more than likely to be close to the average for the period 1989/90 to 2011/12".
