May it please the Tribunal

1. As indicated in the recent judicial conference (see Direction 2.6.76), we seek to file a Further Amended Brief of Evidence of John Roa (this document should replace document #P3(a)).

2. The Tribunal had asked Mr Roa to provide this amended brief to reflect the oral and other evidence presented in the hearing including the oral amendments to his written evidence. This further amended Brief includes:

    i) The correct map of the location of Orongokoekoea pā and being the map that was used during the hearing in the Powerpoint presentation (as provided by the CFRT mapping consultant, Mr John Neal); and,

    ii) An amended discussion around the location of the Marae-o-hine site. The location was clarified and, as discussed in the hearing, is shown to be located fully within general land (and not partly in Maori Freehold land as set out in the previous Brief of Evidence).

3. We ask Crown counsel to share this Further Amended Brief of Evidence with the relevant Crown witnesses (Heritage New Zealand and Cultural and Heritage) as set out in our memorandum of 1 July 2014.

DATED at Auckland this 2nd day of July 2014
