A REPORT COMMISSIONED BY THE WAITANGI TRIBUNAL

This report is prepared by Brian Herlihy of Wanganui, whose working life covers an early career in teaching (including service in Maori Schools) as well as twenty years with the Department of Maori Affairs.

Prior to his retirement he was, for several years, Deputy Registrar of the Maori Land Court, and upon retiring established a consultancy business covering the many and varied problems encountered when dealing with Maori Estates, shareholding in Maori Land, usage of Maori Land and all aspects of Maori Land Court work.

The scope of this report is to examine Maori Land Court files to see how the Court originally determined ownership of land in the Pakakohi/Ngati Ruanui rohe, and the basis of that determination.

INVESTIGATION REPORT

This is a broadly based instruction and one where it is difficult to get down to specifics.

The map supplied by the Tribunal staff indicates an area stretching from about the Whenuakura River to just south of Oeo. The greater part of the area is within the confiscation line, and the great majority of Maori Land holdings follow on from Crown Grants.

The ownership lists in the Maori Land Court have their genesis in these Grants, most of which list only the name(s) of the grantee(s), with the addition in some cases, of the hapu.

This is in sharp contrast to most other areas in the Aotea District where the beneficial ownership of a block was, in most cases, settled following an "Investigation of Title". If a researcher is lucky, the application file and/or Minute Book will contain lists of claimants who were often members of a particular family or hapu.

The Maori Land Court has, in its records, a volume containing West Coast Commissioners' Reports, West Coast Royal Commission 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984 and 1984 Final Report. An extract from this namely, an appendix "List of All Crown Grants Recommended for Issue to 7 June 1883" is at folios 3 to 11 of the Report by Janine Ford dated November 1991 and the first three sections namely :

Section 1 Native Reserves : Waitotara to Patea

Section 2 Native Reserves : Waingongoro to Patea

Section 3 Native Reserves : Waingongoro to Taungataa are relevant to this exercise.

I have checked a good cross-section of the Grants listed - see Schedule B attached - and in nearly every case Maori Land Court records accord with the information given in the appendix.

Sections 1 and 2 of the appendix give in most cases, the name of the Reserve which generally accords with the Maori Land Court indices. However, Section 3 names only two Reserves Te Kaue and Otumatua but the Maori Land Court title(s) involved can, in many cases, be picked up from the name of the hapu(s) listed under Grantees.

One exception from the above is Rotorangi which is in the upper reaches of the Patea River. The Investigation of Title hearing was in 1897 and is recorded in Judge Ward's Minute Book 16. The decision was based largely on lists handed in. However, the only reference I was able to locate dealing with tribal affiliations was at Folio 155 which records the handing in of a list for the Ngati Tamanehe people.

Another record of the Court which deals specifically with tribal claims is the claim in respect of Waioture near the mouth of the Patea River. I have already dealt with this in Section 8 of my submission to the Waitangi Tribunal at Patea on 17 February 1992.

In his decision at 48 Taranaki Minute Book 382 Judge Jack found the block was held in Trust by the grantee Taurua for the Pakakohi Tribe.

Janine Ford's report (F26) page 18 also shows under the subheading Patea District Grant No. 3581 dated 27 August 1883 31 acres 1 rood 22 perches awarded to Matiu Rangihaeata and Tutaki in trust for the Waiharoto and Ngauruahine hapus of the Pakakohi tribe (I think the correct Grant number is 3940, the Grant number and Index number being reversed in the Report).

Note: The West Coast Commissioners' Reports also contain a 1884 Appendix which is an update of the 1883 Appendix but unfortunately some of the pages are damaged.

The next step in the chain of title for Crown Grants was the making of what were termed "Freehold Orders" which were really Partition Orders under Section 15 of the West Coast Settlement Reserves Amendment Act 1913. A large number of such orders were made in 1915 and where no further partitions were made, these are still the title to a number of blocks of Maori Freehold land.

The object of the exercise is to provide the Tribunal and its staff with the information it is seeking, and I am not completely satisfied that the above report does this.

I am aware that in the larger Ngatiruanui District, the Pakakohi and Tangahoe and possibly other claimants, are endeavouring to establish themselves as tribes in their own right. It would appear to me that the identification of tribal and hapu areas, as they were at the allocation of land holdings, could perhaps best be achieved by using an older Cadastral (which is more likely to contain the original section numbers) and the information in the Maori Land Court records, plus that in the 1883 and 1884 appendices of the Royal Commission Report to compile a colour or numerically coded map.
