

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF NEW ZEALAND

I TE KŌTI MANA NUI

SC 21/2018
[2018] NZSC 61

BETWEEN COLIN GRAEME CRAIG
Applicant

AND JORDAN HENRY WILLIAMS
Respondent

Court: Elias CJ, O'Regan and Ellen France JJ

Counsel: S J Mills QC, J W J Graham and T F Cleary for Applicant
P A McKnight and A J Romanos for Respondent

Judgment: 4 July 2018

JUDGMENT OF THE COURT

- A Leave to appeal and leave to cross-appeal is granted (Williams v Craig [2018] NZCA 31).
- B The approved question is whether the Court of Appeal erred in allowing the appeal to that Court in part and dismissing the cross-appeal to that Court.
-

REASONS

[1] The terms on which leave to appeal and leave to cross-appeal have been granted are intended to allow each party to advance the matters raised in their respective applications for leave.

Solicitors:
Chapman Tripp, Auckland for Applicant
Langford Law, Wellington for Respondent